Terms and Conditions, part of static net rate agreement

General:

The contract is concluded as soon as the net rates offered and the terms and conditions have been signed and accepted by both parties.

Agreement is based on these Terms and Conditions in combination with the local closed contracts.

Rates:

The static net rates for FITs need to be published either packaged or with a recommended Mark up of 25 %. Vienna House reserve the right to influence the packages for on-line sales to the public and control the presentation.

Vienna House reserve the right to request Vienna House product to be removed from a specific website, in the event that terms and conditions have not been adhered to.

The Net Rates shall not be published directly or indirectly to end-customers.

Contracted Rates:

All rates are net per room per night or person (defined per local contract), including breakfast buffet, service charges and the currently prevailing VAT, effective after conclusion of the agreement. In case of VAT increase during contracted period, the hotels of Vienna House reserve the right to modify the contracted rates accordingly for all future bookings. Bookings with posting date before the official announcement of a tax adjustment is not subject to this adjustment.

Rates may be subject to change due to new taxes or increased taxes. This occurs above arrangements in force. Any city tax is not included in the room rate, except if mentioned in the written contract.

Not allowed online presentation platforms:

Properties of Vienna House are not allowed to be published on online distribution channels with "best Rate Guaranty", "lowest rate policies" or similar published on those web sites.

Vienna House reserve the right to request that Vienna House product be removed from unwanted sales channels in consultation with the contractor.

Confirmation: Please send back this document signed.
